RE: *Walker International Holdings Limited v. Republic of Congo
Case No. 1:05-MC-00156 (SLR)

Dear Chief Judge Robinson:

Plaintiff, Walker International Holdings Limited ("Walker"), writes to correct the record on the issue of Plaintiff's service of its Opposition to CMS Nomeco Congo LLC ("CMS") Reply in Support of its Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Plaintiff's Motion for Issuance of Writ of Attachment Fieri Facias ("CMS' Reply"). In CMS' Reply, CMS states that it first learned that Plaintiff had filed an opposition to its motion for an extension of time on September 29, 2005, "by checking the docket sheet in this case". CMS further states in footnote one of CMS' Reply that Plaintiff did not properly serve CMS' counsel, because CMS' counsel has not yet registered to receive notice of the filing and "[p]resumably [Plaintiff] received an e-receipt advising him that e-service could not be made for that reason."

Contrary to CMS's speculation, plaintiff did not receive such an e-receipt. Rather, the Court's electronic filing system receipt demonstrates that CMS' counsel was served with Plaintiff's opposition on September 21, 2005, the day that the opposition was filed. We attach the filing receipt as Exhibit A to this letter.

Walker normally would not correspond with the Court by letter, but the nature of CMS' misstatement questions counsel's compliance with the rules of procedure and should not remain unanswered.

Respectfully,

Joseph B. Cicero (#4388)
